III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

TYPE OF RECRUITMENT INITIATIVE	ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION
Participate in activity designed by SEU to further disseminate information about employment opportunities in broadcasting to job candidates who might otherwise be unaware of such opportunities	Radio Rookies® is our initiative that provides local high school students with the tools and training to create radio stories about themselves, their communities and their world. Radio Rookies conducts workshops across New York, in predominantly under-resourced neighborhoods, training young people to use words and sounds to tell true stories. Each workshop lasts from four to eight months and is held at partnering community organizations in the city. Upon completion, the Rookies' documentaries air on WNYC, usually during Morning Edition and online at wnyc.org. During this reporting period, the stations hosted 37 Rookies. During the workshops, Rookie Reporters learn everything about radio journalism, from how to conduct an interview and develop a story to how to craft a script and digitally edit their audio. There is no fee, and the program provides all the equipment and instruction needed. Additionally, each Rookie reporter is paired with a volunteer mentor, a professional journalist who gives the teenager guidance and mentorship outside of the workshop.
Internship program – Scholarship Plus Interns	Scholarship Plus targets deserving, bright, hard-working and successful seniors from New York City's public schools. These students have overcome various personal hardships, economic and other. Many will have lived in fractured families, and most will be the first in their families to attend college in this country. We hosted four Scholarship Plus interns during the reporting period. Each intern was assigned to a separate departments, including, Community Engagement, Development and Underwriting. The interns worked on projects that are high priority to the organization. Our Staffing Associate also organized events during the course of their internship where the students were able to sit in on training sessions featuring our staff and a digital media focus group.

33 Internship Program – The New York State Broadcasters Inc. Internship Program	During the reporting period, we hired an intern via The New York State Broadcasters Association Internship Program to work in the Business Development Department. The intention of this program was to provide the participating student the opportunity to witness and experience “first hand” the operational procedures of a radio or television station. The intern received training in programming/music, news, production/continuity, sales, traffic/bookkeeping, technical/engineering and digital. Our Staffing Associate also organized events during the course of the internship where the student was able to participate in the training sessions featuring our staff, a digital media focus group and a spotlight introduction of different staff within the organization.
34 Internship Program – Oberlin College Winter Internship Program	During the reporting period, we hired three interns via Oberlin College’s Winter Term Internship Program to work in the Community Engagement and Publicity Departments. The interns assisted with getting the word out about WNYC/WQXR in the community and increasing our database.
35 Host an event/program sponsored by or on behalf of an educational institution related to careers in broadcasting	On December 30, 2014, Reporter Karen Rouse hosted eight high school students and advisors from “Youth Journalism International,” an online news site based in Connecticut. The students received a tour of the NYPR studios and were able to tour the station and observe reporters and producers at work.
Participate in job fair	From July 30, 2014 through August 3, 2014, we participated in the National Association of Black Journalist Annual Convention &amp; Career Fair in Boston, Massachusetts. Station participants included our Staffing Associate and HR Generalist/Business Partner, Vice President of Human Resources and Organizational Effectiveness and two reporters, who offered information about employment opportunities at the station. Information was provided in printed flyers about our station(s) and our current openings. A station representative also discussed potential career tracks with attendees who were interested in radio and public broadcasting.
