TYPE OF RECRUITMENT INITIATIVE	ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION
Participate in activity designed by SEU to further disseminate information about employment opportunities in broadcasting to job candidates who might otherwise be unaware of such opportunities	Radio Rookies is our initiative that provides local high school students with the tools and training to create radio stories about themselves, their communities and their world. Radio Rookies conducts workshops across New York, in predominantly under-resourced neighborhoods, training young people to use words and sounds to tell true stories. Each workshop lasts from four to eight months and is held at partnering community organizations in the city. Upon completion, the Rookies' documentaries air on WNYC, usually during Morning Edition and online at wnyc.org. During this reporting period, the stations hosted 75 Rookies. During the workshops, Rookie Reporters learned about radio journalism, including how to conduct an interview and develop a story and how to craft a script and digitally edit their audio. There is no fee, and the program provides all the equipment and instruction needed. Additionally, each Rookie reporter is paired with a volunteer mentor, a professional journalist who gives the teenager guidance and mentorship outside of the workshop. The interns participated in weekly training sessions conducted by New York Public Radio employees on a variety of topics related to working in public media and were mentored by NYPR employees within their department.
